ALLELUJA

for medium voice & organ
Matthew 28:1-2, 5-6 (KJV)
In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.
And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for Christ1 is risen!
Alleluja!
The kingdom of this world shall be free from sin2; Alleluja!

Notes:
- Beaming in the vocal line has been modernised, with slurs added where appropriate.
- Punctuation for the verses has been added in line with the KJV. This being said, Ms Perry’s capitalisation and punctuation for the repeated Allelujas has been retained.
- Double barlines before time signatures have been removed as in modern convention.
- The marking of Allegro in bar 61 is not in the manuscript, but has been included as in the previous instance of the same material.
- The pedal E in bars 83-86 is speculative as the manuscript copy has been cut off.

The manuscript has been included at the end of the typeset version.

1 In KJV “for He is risen”.
2 This line appears to be a creation of Ms Perry.
Recitative ($l = 66$)

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the...
angel of the Lord descended from heaven,

and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

And the

angel answered and said unto the women,
Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus,
which was crucified. He is not here:
for Christ is risen!
