

MUSEUM STORY TIME

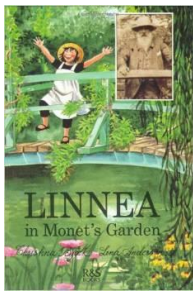

University of Richmond Museums

Visit the University Museums and join us for Museum Story Time, an entertaining and hands-on experience for kids of all ages.

We will have activities, explore art, sing songs and read the books listed below.

Reservations are encouraged and participation is FREE!

Linnea in Monet's Garden by Christina Bjork

Sunday February 8, at 2 to 3 pm

Joel and Lila Harnett Museum of Art, University Museums

Wednesday February 11, at 10 to 11 am

Joel and Lila Harnett Museum of Art, University Museums

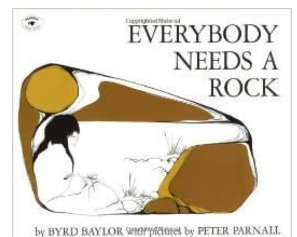

Everybody Needs a Rock by Byrd Baylor

Sunday March 22, at 2 to 3 pm

Lora Robins Gallery of Design from Nature, University Museums

Wednesday March 25, at 10 to 11 am

Lora Robins Gallery of Design from Nature, University Museums

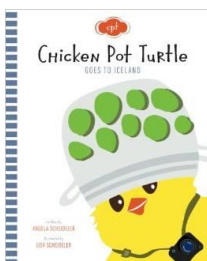

Chicken Pot Turtle Goes to Iceland by Angela M Scheideler and Lisa M Scheideler

Sunday April 12, at 2 to 3 pm

Lora Robins Gallery of Design from Nature, University Museums

Wednesday April 15, at 10 to 11 am

Lora Robins Gallery of Design from Nature, University Museums

For more information or to RSVP, please contact Martha Wright Coordinator of Visitor and Tour Services, University of Richmond Museums mwright3@richmond.edu, 804-289-8237, museums.richmond.edu

