1.2. Congratulations to our leaders elevated to new appointments:
- Prof. Rebecca Siefert is now Associate Chair.
- Recognition and gratitude to Prof. Shelley Roff for remarkable service as SAH WiA AG Associate Chair 2020–23. Shelley in collaboration with Dr. Elizabeth Darling organized the first SAH WiA AG SAH CONNECTS Webinar in celebration of the International Women’s Day on March 8, 2021, The Advent of Women Architectural Professionals, a US-UK Comparative Perspective sponsored by SAH WiA AG and SAHGB Women’s Architectural Historians’ Network; developed a collaborative proposal for a Women in Architecture transatlantic diplomacy podcast, and two session proposals reviewed and supported by SAH WiA AG Council, most recent: Matronage in a New Light: Alternative Facets of Premodern Patronage.
- Shelley Roff joined SAH WiA AG Registers Committee.
- Prof. Priya Jain is now Senior Communications Lead.
- Recognition and gratitude to Prof. Danielle S. Willkens for remarkable service as member of SAH WIA AG Council and outstanding contribution as our Communications Coordinator 2020–23. Danielle initiated and was administering our Twitter platform (331 Following, 209 Followers) and created our Women in Architecture Wikipedia Edit-a-Thon with over 1,000 visitors.

- Welcome to new member of SAH WiA AG Registers Committee Alexandra Staub, PhD, Professor of Architecture, Penn State University. Individual introduction by Sandra.

  Discussion: Sandra Staub, SAH WiA AG Registers Committee: to consider contribution to programs “Interactive Oral Histories” and Mentoring Program, service as member of the Council. Avni Gor, SAH WiA AG Associate Administrator leading SAH WiA AG LinkedIn platform: confirmation of interest and designation to lead group’s Twitter platform and publish announcements in Discussion of SAH WiA Group forum. Anna Sokolina: e-letters of recognition and gratitude in the name of the Group to outgoing leaders, communications with Danielle on transferring Twitter lead.

1.3. SAH Women in Architecture Affiliate Group Leadership 2023: Call for Nominations

Discussion

2. SAH 76 Annual International Conference, Montréal, Canada, Apr 12–16, 2023

Recognition for this initiative to Prof. Gül Kale, member of SAH WiA AG Council.

Discussion

3. SAH WiA AG Legacy Committee LEGACY COMMITTEE – SAH Women in Architecture Affiliate Group (hcommons.org)

3.1. Recognition Program

“SAH Women in Architecture Affiliate Group Proposal to SAH Board to create an Award for Distinction in Scholarship on the History of Women in Architecture”

We are grateful to SAH Board for consideration and insightful feedback. On May 5, we received the official response from Prof. Patricia Morton, SAH President. On April 12, 2023 SAH Board has established a “Procedure for Proposing a New SAH Award” and has decided to not approve the proposal as submitted. If we agree to resubmit the proposal, it must be a new proposal to adhere to the new procedure, including the requirement for a plan for raising funds to support the administration of award.

Discussion: Recognition of contribution by group members; assessment of the SAH Board feedback.

Jelena Bogdanović: Insight into the contents and essence of the feedback. Wanda Bubrski: Framework for funding to administer the Award. Anna Sokolina: On history of the Program. While creating the Legacy Committee, she proposed three programs, one of those, the Recognition Program, would celebrate a trifold: activism, publications, and lifelong contribution of members of SAH WiA community. Pauline Saliga, SAH Execute Director, proposed to instead focus on developing one proposal for a WiA Award of Distinction and submit it to SAH Board. In absence of formal procedure, it was a trailblazing effort. Following two rounds of peer review by members of WiA AG Legacy Committee, Pauline aided with final edits and proposal was submitted as part of group’s March 2022 program: Celebrating Women’s History Month. According to SAH Guideline for Affiliate Groups, AGs are not authorized to have own slate of awards or to handle fiscal matters on their own. WiA group is welcome to submit a new proposal. Alternatively, the initial Legacy Committee program can be revisited and members accomplishments featured in the end-of-the year letter distributed through WiA AG listserv. Catherine Erkkila: we want to foster a sense of community. Wanda: second Catherine, and the BWAF experience.
3.2. SAH WiA AG Archive
SAH WiA AG groundwork years: First submission of records to International Archive of Women in Architecture (IAWA), Virginia Tech University Libraries—in progress.

4. SAH WiA AG Registers Committee
Registers Committee – SAH Women in Architecture Affiliate Group (hcommons.org)

Discussion: Barbara Opar.

4.2. SAH WiA AG Interactive Oral Histories—ongoing project spearheaded by Rebecca Siefert and Barbara Opar, with interns supervised by Barbara Opar; new conversations to feature outstanding SAH members.
Discussion: Jelena Bogdanović, Barbara Opar, Rebecca Siefert, Anna Sokolina, Sandra Staub—to follow up in a separate meeting.
