

JULEP SONG

"The Good old Mint Julep for Me."

Words by Richard Grant.

Music by Will Marion Cook.

Allegro moderato.

Don't Prate

talk to me of wines of France, of Vin - tage of Cham - pagne — Tho' not to me of Ger - man beer, nor yet of En - glish ale. — The atempo.

I ad - mit the charm of it, And ne'er from it ab - stain, — But rus - tic clown may pour them down; To me, they're poor and pale; — Some there's one drink which is I think, The King pin and the tu - lip — To men 'tis true, must needs pur - sue, Each new bright eye and new - lip — But ban-ish care and make life fair, And that, boys, is the Ju - lep!— So best, I think, one girl, one drink, My sweet-heart and a Ju - lep!— So rit.

here is a health to the South-ern girl— I quaff in a South - ern brew— The li - quors the best in the wide,wide world,— The girls are the fair est, too— I give you a toast to our charm-ing host— We'll drink it with three times three, times three; You may keep all the wine if you think it di - vine: The good old mint ju - lep for me

Tenors.

Chorus.

Basses.

So here is a health to the South-ern girl — I

ff

ff

ff

Chorus.

quaff in a South-ern brew The li- quor's the best in the brew South-ern brew

wide, wide world The girls are the fair- est too, fair- est too I too fair- est too

give you a toast to our charm- ing host We'll drink it with three times three times three times three You may keep all the wine if you think it di -

three mf vine The good old mint ju - lep, the good old mint ju - lep, the mf res e rit. res e rit.

mf rit.

good old mint ju - lep, for me.