FAMOUS SONG SUCCESSES

COLE AND JOHNSON BROS

BOB COLE JAMES W. JOHNSON

ROSAMOND JOHNSON

SONGS INTRODUCED BY MARIE CAHILL IN "NANCY BROWN."

MARIE CAHILL'S "CONGO LOVE SONG" . 60

"The Katy-did, the Cricket and the Frog" . 60
  Sung by MARIE CAHILL in "NANCY BROWN."

"CUPID'S RAMBLE" ("Cupid's Blind They Say.") . 60
  Sung by MARIE CAHILL in "NANCY BROWN."

"TWO EYES," -- -- Sung in "NANCY BROWN." . 60

"Under the Bamboo Tree" Introduced by Marie Cahill. . 60

Public Performance Prohibited without Permission
The Katy-did, the Cricket and the Frog.

Words by
J. W. JOHNSON.

Music by BOB COLE.

Allegro moderato.

An old bull frog who was rather gay, met a
One day the frog met a cricket friend, 'twas a
The cricket he was a dandy thing, and he pretty Katy-did,

chance he couldn't miss;
charm'd the Katy-did;

She caught his fancy
To give his friend his
His dress was fine, he

Met a pretty Katy-did,
'Twas a chance he couldn't miss;
And he charm'd the Katy-did;

Copyright MCMIII by Jos. W. Stern & Co.
International Copyright Secured.
right away, for her heart he made a bid;
private views on nuptial joy and bliss,
talked and sang, while the moon in silence hid;
Said he to her, "Although my heart he made a bid;
nuptial joy and bliss;
moment in silence hid;
back is green, Yet my greenbacks are not few; If like to know, Why such happiness fills my eye? Just said, "I think All the views he expressed are true." Then

For her On con
While the
Said he to him, "Now would you. The bull frog dozed, the cricket you'll agree to abide with me, There'll be nothing too good for me to my mossy bank, And I'll show you the reason why, why, why. And I'll show you the reason why.

3512-1

Chorus.

And so that night in the pale moonlight, The Katy-did she listened to the Katy-did, the cricket and the sad and gloomy picture was the frog. While he tried to woo, and to bill and coo, As the frog.
had a lively chat about this and that, As the frog.
he mourned his fate at a lively rate, As he two sat together on a log, log, log. The three sat together on the log, log, log. The sat all alone upon the log, log, log. A pretty little Katy and the frog. Katy-did, the cricket and the frog.

poor, forsaken, but a wiser frog.
Another Great Musical Success like the Famous "Bamboo Tree." Sung in the Comedy Opera entitled NANCY BROWN.

Marie Cahill's
Congo Love Song.

Chorus. Not fast

"As long as the Congo flows to the sea,
   As long as a

leaf grows on the bamboo tree,
   My love and de-

vo-tion will be deep as the ocean;
   Won't you take a na-tion for to love-a but me?"

Copyright MCMLIII by Jos. W. Stern & Co.,
International Copyright secured.

Jos. W. Stern & Co., COMPLETE CATALOGUES OF Vocal and Instrumental Publications MAILED ON REQUEST.