

ART LIBRARIES SOCIETY OF NORTH AMERICA SOUTHEAST
CHAPTER 1996 ANNUAL CONFERENCE Augusta, Georgia October 17-19, 1996

This year the 1996 ARLIS/SE is being held in the Garden City, Augusta, Georgia. The planned program includes a guided tour of historic Augusta, a visit to the Ida Kohlmeyer Recent Works exhibit at the Morris Museum of Art (MMA), a meeting with Mr. Starkey Flythe, Jr, former editor of the Saturday Evening Post, who will speak about Southern art and literature, and, of course, our business meeting and banquet.

Our meeting and lodging will be at The Partridge Inn, a historic bed and breakfast on the Summerville Hillside which affords a magnificent view of the town. For those staying over Saturday, an optional guided tour of the historic homes of Madison, Georgia, lunch and travel through the historic Washington, Georgia are on the agenda. Other stay over events to attend on your own are the Hispanic Festival at the downtown Augusta Riverfront, or maybe a UGA football game up the road in Athens. Milledgeville, Georgia's first capital and home of Flannery O'Connor, and Eatonton's Uncle Remus Museum are also within driving distance from Augusta. I will be glad to help you plan your stay.

I look forward to welcoming ya'll to Augusta. If I can answer questions about the information I have included or escluded here, please contact me. See you soon...
