

IN THE NAME OF ALLAH

Zionism - The Distorter Of The Scriptures

---

Zionism - The Distorter Of The Scriptures

Did you know that in the Old Testament, God is not the God of all human-beings; moreover, since a specific time, he becomes the God of the Jewish people? Is God really like this? Is the God of any people different than that of any other people?!

Please study:

Exodus 6: 1-8 / Exodus 3:10 / Exodus 8: 21-23

Did you know that in the Old Testament, God is described as forgetful?

Can a God being worshipped, be forgetful?!

Please study:

Exodus 6: 1-8

#Did_You_Know

Did you know that in the Old Testament God is a luxury-lover and in need of opulence and gifts?!

Must not the God being worshiped be needless of opulence and worldly gifts?!

Please study:

Exodus 25: 1-7

Did you know that in the Old Testament, it is claimed that God allows the Israelites to violate other people's rights?

God should be just, shouldn't He?

Please study:

Deuteronomy 23:19-20

Did you know that in the Old Testament, God is described as being very harsh?

Indeed, isn't our God kind?

Please study:

Deuteronomy 29:18-22

#Did_You_Know

Did you know that in the Old Testament, a divine Prophet (Solomon) is described as a man who has thirst for power and monarchy, willing to kill his own brother for preserving the monarchy?

Are such attributes worthy to be said about divine prophets?

Please study:

1 Kings 2:13-25

Did you know that in the Old Testament, the divine Prophet (Solomon) is described as being a shameless man who owns a seraglio (harem).

It is also stated that his women gradually moved him away from God, until he finally became an idolater?!

Is it fair to accuse the divine Prophets of possessing such characteristics?

Please study:

1 Kings 11:1-8

#Did_You_Know

Did you know that in the Old Testament, the divine prophet (Solomon) has God's anger over himself because of his idolatry, but his son was punished instead of him?!

Actually, according to the revelations of the Old Testament, if the prophet Solomon was an idolater, why does God not ruin his Kingdom?!

Why does God forgive him because of his father, but punishes his son for his (Solomon) sin?!

Is it fair to accuse God of having such qualities?

Please study:

1 Kings 11:9-13

Did you know that in the Old Testament lying is not considered unethical, such that God does not blame his prophet for lying?!

(even if it leads to the death of another prophet), but another prophet deserves punishment and death for his unintentional disobedience?!

Is God the most just judge or not?

Please study:

1 Kings 13: 14-26

#Did_You_Know

Did you know that in the Old Testament a divine prophet (David), who according to the claim of the Old Testament has the spirit of God in his body, chooses to marry a married woman by force, and without divorce from her first husband?

Please study:

2 samuel 3: 13-16

Did you know that in the Old Testament a divine prophet (David) was a voyeur!

And he commits adultery and by means of deception he prevents the disclosure of his sin and error?

Are such attributes worthy to be said about divine prophets?

Please study:

2 samuel 11: 2-15

Did you know that in the Old Testament prophets were not even showing forgiveness towards the teenagers, and in case of any small error, instead of guiding, they cursed them?

Have not the divine prophets been sent from God to guide humans? Shouldn't they invite the youth to the divine religion with kindness, generosity and patience?

Wasn't Jesus Christ, the Son of Man kind and patient?

Please study:

2 Kings 2:23-25

#Did_You_Know

Did you know that in the Old Testament the “kings of Israel” were sinful, but because of the promise that God had given to his prophet he did not punished them? Verily doesn't the justice of God dominate the whole world?

Please study:

2 Kings 8: 17-19

Did you know that in the Old Testament there are very hard ordinances concerning women, in such a way that if someone touches women on the time of their monthly issue they will become unclean?

Is it right that women are severely blamed for the natural condition that God has placed in their nature? Verily, where is the position of women in the Old Testament?

Please study:

Leviticus 15: 19-24

Did you know that in the Old Testament God lies in his warning to Adam and forbids him from eating the fruit of the good and evil tree and warns him that he would die if he eats the fruit of that tree; but Adam ate from that fruit and didn't die? Is the great God truly a liar or doesn't he have knowledge about his creatures? Isn't it that God knows everything about the heaven and earth?

Please study:

Genesis 2: 15-17

#Did_You_Know

Did you know that in the Old Testament, a divine prophet (Job) is introduced as an ungrateful and aggressive person who blames God successively when he is tested by him?

Please study:

Job7: 12-21

Did you know that in the Old Testament, every action that comes from humans is predetermined by God, such that his justice is questioned? Is not the worldly and otherworldly life the result of our own actions? Has he not given us the power of reasoning and intellect so that we could think and choose the way of reward?

Please study:

Job9: 22-24