ANIMAL LANGUAGES IN THE MIDDLE AGES
Representations of Interspecies Communication

Edited by Alison Langdon

The New Middle Ages
Palgrave/MacMillan

ANIMAL LANGUAGES IN THE MIDDLE AGES
Representations of Interspecies Communication

1. Introduction
Alison Langdon

Part I: Communicating through Animals

2. Becoming-Birds: The Destabilizing Use of Gendered Animal Imagery in Ancrene Wisse
Iva Jevtić

3. “As faucon comen out of muwe”: Female Agency and the Language of Falconry
Sara Petrosillo

4. Saints and Holy Beasts: Pious Animals in Early-Medieval Insular Saints’ Vitae
Sally Shockro

5. The Speech of Strangers: The Tale of the Andalusi Phoenix
Michelle M. Hamilton

Part II: Recovering Animal Languages

6. Bark Like a Man: Performance, Identity, and Boundary in Old English Animal Voice Catalogues
Robert Stanton

7. In Briddes Wise: Chaucer’s Avian Poetics
Angela Jane Weisl

8. Understanding Hawk-Latin: Animal Language and Universal Rhetoric
Carolyynn Van Dyke

9. "Dites le mei, si ferez bien": Fallen Language and Animal Communication in Marie de France’s Bisclavret
Alison Langdon

Part III: Embodied Language and Interspecies Dependence

10. On Equine Language: Jordanus Rufus and Thirteenth-Century Communicative Horsemanship
Elizabeth S. Leet

11. No Hoof, No Horse: Hoof Care, Veterinary Medicine and Cross-Species Communication in Late Medieval England
Francine McGregor

12. Medieval Dog Whisperers: The Poetics of Rehabilitation
Jamie C. Fumo

13. Embodied Emotion as Animal Language in Le Chevalier au Lion
Monica Antoinette Ehrlich