The Esoteric Tradition in Russian Romantic Literature
Decembrism and Freemasonry

LAUREN G. LEIGHTON

"This book is a significant contribution to the field. Other scholars have decoded Masonic and other esoteric elements in Pushkin’s writings, but to the best of my knowledge, Leighton is the only one who has revealed the esoteric dialogue between Pushkin and his contemporaries, and traced the path by which particular esoteric elements entered into Russian romantic literature. The chapters contain a wealth of material on the writings of certain Decembrists and their context."

—Bernice Glazer Rosenthal, Fordham University

224 pages $39.50

Nikolai Gogol and the Baroque Cultural Heritage

GAVRIEL SHAPIRO

"With thoroughness and erudition Shapiro explores a fresh angle to a familiar subject. His method, rigorously observed throughout, is simple. . . . Clearly written, meticulously researched, and abundantly illustrated, this original study will be required reading for all Gogol specialists."

Thomas G. Masaryk
Against the Current, 1882–1914

H. GORDON SKILLING

In this study of the ideas and actions of one of Czechoslovakia’s leading thinkers and politicians, Skilling deals with Masaryk’s pre-1914 career as a professor and permanent dissenter. Unlike other works about Masaryk, it deals integrally with all aspects of his prewar life. It discusses his political theory and his practical work as a party leader, but goes beyond politics to his views on scholarship, Czech history, religion, anti-Semitism, nationality, Czech-Slovak relations, foreign policy, the social question, and the place of women.

The Poetic Craft of Bella Akhmadulina

SONIA I. KETCHIAN

“Filled with informal anecdote and bright insight, Sonia Ketchian’s survey of Akhmadulina’s poetry is a fine and very useful explication of the central work of one of Russia’s most important modern poets. Concisely but clearly, the book lays out Akhmadulina’s development, her debts and her innovations, and the distinguishing characteristics of her verse and of her basic attitude. Her reading of the poems is close and accurate, expressing an appealing intellectual sensitivity and broad literary sympathy."

—F. D. Reeve, Wesleyan University

Call for Proposals, 1995 Convention

The Program Committee invites proposals for the 27th National Convention of the AAASS, hosted by the Washington DC Chapter of the AAASS, to be held October 26-29, 1995, in Washington, D.C.

Proposals must be for complete panels (not individual papers) and should normally involve presentation of prepared papers. Proposals for roundtables should be submitted only when the topic clearly justifies this format. Special consideration will be given to those proposals which include presentations by advanced graduate students and/or untenured faculty. Proposals should be sent to the appropriate Program Committee member, with a copy to the AAASS National Office. Those which do not fall within any of the fields assigned to committee members, and interdisciplinary panels or roundtables, should be directed to the Program Committee Chair, Harley Balzer. (Please note: Proposals can be accepted only from AAASS members, or from foreign non-members.)

Deadline for receipt of all proposals: January 1, 1995.

The form on which to submit proposals was included in the September issue of the AAASS NewsNet. Copies are available from the national office. All proposals must provide complete information including name, affiliation, full address, and telephone number of all participants (including chair, discussants, etc.); and a statement from the panel organizer certifying that all individuals listed have agreed to participate in the panel. No participant may be listed more than once on a given panel or roundtable, present more than one paper, or appear more than twice in the convention program.

Panel organizers should make clear to participants, especially foreign scholars, that the AAASS does not provide financial support for travel expenses.

Please note: All panelists, with the exception of foreign scholars and of invited participants who are not in the Russian/Eurasian/East European field, must be current AAASS members; requests for exemption of "non-area" specialists should be submitted with the proposal. All panelists, without exception, are required to pre-register for the convention. Organizers should communicate these points to potential participants prior to submission of proposals.

Comintern Archive

on microfiche

Together, the Russian Centre for the Conservation and Study of Records of Modern History and IDC Microform Publishers, are proud to announce that microfilming of the Comintern Archive has begun.

The previously available Congress Proceedings, which were published in 1920 and 1930, had been heavily censored by the Executive Committee. Now, following the reforms in Russia, there is an opportunity to read about the real history of Comintern, from the original documents.

IDC’s incorporation of Comintern material from the archives of the former Central Party Archive (now renamed the Russian Centre for the Conservation and Study of Records of Modern History) starts with the publication of shorthand reports on the first Comintern congresses, upon which the political component of the organization was founded.

The microfiche series published by IDC will include all archive documents relating to the Comintern congresses and Plenums of the Executive Committee, including material from preparatory and working commissions. Nothing will be omitted.

Scope of the project
- Archive indexes will be filmed on separate index fiches -
- Archive material will be recorded on approximately 12,000 fiche -
  - Published in ten installments -
- The first installment will be available in the winter of 1994 -

If you like to be informed about the progress of this microfiche project, please let us know.
