The following issues of The Donald W. Treadgold Papers are now available (international orders add $1.00, WA residents add 8.6% sales tax):

German-Bashing and the Breakup of Yugoslavia

Daniele Conversi ($6.45)

"In a triumph of intricate research and reasoning Professor Conversi debunks the established nonsense of how Germany's "incautious" recognition of Slovenia and Croatia in 1991 deepened the Balkan rifts and assured the war in Bosnia."

Ivo Banac, Yale University and CEU

Energy and Mineral Exports from the Former USSR: Philosophers' Stone or Fool's Gold

Leslie Dienes ($5.25)

Dienes analyzes the conflicts between Russia's energy and mineral industries, government agencies, commodity producers, commercial structures, and the oil pipeline monopoly.

Romanian-Hungarian Economic Cooperation and Joint Ventures in Post-Ceausescu Romania

Erica Agiewich ($5.25)

The collapse of the Ceaucescu regime in Romania in late 1989 has opened up possibilities for joint Romanian-Hungarian economic cooperation, shown in this pioneer study.

Ethnic Cleansing in the Twentieth-Century Europe

Norman Naimark ($5.25)

Naimark makes a groundbreaking contribution to the virtually undeveloped field of comparative genocide with case studies including Armenia, the Holocaust, and wartime expulsions from Chechnya and Bosnia.

THE ROMANTIC HERO AND CONTEMPORARY ANTI-HERO IN POLISH AND CZECH LITERATURE: Great Souls and Grey Men by Charles S. Kraszewski
"It represents an extremely ambitious attempt at treating, selectively, the two modern literatures, and is done with great exactness and sensitivity where both Polish and Czech traditions are concerned. . . . he has been successful in making the two literatures come alive through this selective approach, and, at the same time, supplying a historical dimension in the form of developmental continuity." - William E. Harkins
0-7734-2223-4 336pp. 1997

ANNA BUNINA (1774-1829), AND THE ORIGINS OF WOMEN'S POETRY IN RUSSIA by Wendy Rosslyn
"A masterpiece of biographical and literary scholarship. . . . a seminal and definitive work that would be a valued addition to any Russian studies and Russian literary library collection. . . . This seminal work is enhanced with extensive notes at the end of each chapter, an extensive bibliography, and a useful index for scholars and students." - The Midwest Book Review

An Open Letter to Slavic Review Referees

Slavic Review, like all scholarly journals, depends upon the contributed effort and expertise of peer reviewers who evaluate manuscripts and advise the editor and authors on their merits and potential for publication. Slavic Review receives over 150 manuscripts per year, but can publish no more than 30. This makes the task of rigorous, thorough, and fair refereeing all the more important to our profession, if taxing to the referees. Since I assumed the editorship of Slavic Review, more than 300 scholars have provided prompt and full evaluations of manuscripts submitted to the journal. Their careful and constructive reports have aided me in my editorial decisions and have also assisted authors in revising and rethinking their work, whether or not their manuscripts are ultimately published in this journal. I can not recognize these scholars publicly and personally for their service, but please be assured how much we here, and the entire profession, value it. Many thanks to each and every one of you for your unsung but much appreciated assistance.

Sincerely,
Diane P. Koenker
Editor, Slavic Review
