

Funding DH Projects at the NEH

Sheila A. Brennan, PhD, Senior Program Officer, Office of Digital Humanities, National Endowment for the Humanities | sbrennan@neh.gov

Introduction

Good News!

The National Endowment for the Humanities funds digital projects in every Division:

Digital Humanities | Research | Education
Preservation & Access | Public Programs | Challenge

Ask yourself what type of activities you need funded & the poster will help you identify relevant programs.

New Methods, Software, Critique

Developing innovative digital methods, workflows, software, or digital infrastructure?

- Digital Humanities Advancement Grants

Pursuing research that examines history, criticism, or philosophy of digital culture and technology on society?

- Digital Humanities Advancement Grants with a team or Fellowships as an individual

Established Digital Methods

Doing DH at an HBCU or HSI?

- Awards for Faculty at HBCUs and HSIs

Collaborating on digital research resulting in a website, journal article, edited collection, special issue of a journal, book?

- Collaborative Research

Incorporating digital methods into individual research leading to a publication?

- Fellowships

Collections & Access

Building collections? Designing interfaces to collections?

- Humanities Collections and Reference Resources

Researching collections & data standards for access or preservation?

- Research and Development or Digital Humanities Advancement Grants

DH Curricula & Pedagogy

Designing a DH minor/major for undergraduates?

- Humanities Connections

Creating curriculum-based DH projects (ie, podcasts, OERs)?

- Humanities Initiatives (priorities for Presidentially Designated Institutions & Community Colleges)

Researching effectiveness of online learning or digital pedagogy?

- Digital Humanities Advancement Grants

Digital Public Engagement

Creating a website, mobile app, game, or virtual environment for public engagement?

- Digital Projects for the Public

Developing new software or methods for public engagement?

- Digital Humanities Advancement Grants

Documenting community histories?

- Humanities Collections and Reference Resources

DH Professional Development

Developing national or regional training in DH?

- Institutes for Advanced Topics in Digital Humanities

Designing summer institutes on a humanities topic integrating digital methods?

- Summer Seminars and Institutes

Digital Editions & Publications

Publishing a critical or documentary edition, or translation, using an existing software platform?

- Scholarly Editions and Translations

Developing new features to an existing or new digital publishing platform?

- Digital Humanities Advancement Grants.

Seeking a fellowship to create a digital publication?

- NEH-Mellon Fellowships for Digital Publication

Sustaining DH

Seeking long-term support for maintenance & development for existing digital scholarly infrastructure?

Seeking to raise money for a DH Center or Lab?

- Infrastructure and Capacity Building Challenge Grants

Humanities Commons received one!

Get in Touch!

Contact Program Staff – we really answer our email!